

Journal background

“Forestry information” journal is published since 1968. Until 2009 it was a print journal and since 2009 it is available only on-line (electronic scientific periodical publication).

“Forestry information” journal mission is timely and reliable distribution of forestry research information.

Key journal topics – information on urgent issues in silviculture, forest regeneration and afforestation, forest protection, state forest inventory, economic problems in forestry, forest ecology, including radioecology and forest fire protection, international negotiation process on forests overseas forest management experience.

The Journal is issued quarterly.

The founder – “Russian Research Institute for Silviculture and Mechanization of Forestry”.

“Forestry information” journal is registered at the Federal Supervisory Service for telecommunication, information technologies and mass communications (Roskomnadzor). Mass information media registration Certificate El № FS77-49292 of April 06, 2012.

The journal is listed in the VINITI RAS abstract journal and data bases (agreement of February 2. 2015.). Information on journal publications is available in the VINITI RAS catalogue.

Information on the journal is annually published in the "Ulrich's Periodicals directory" to inform world scientific community.

Full-text papers are available at the journal site LHI.VNIILM.RU, in e-library, IPRbooks, cyberleninka.

All papers published in the Journal are subject to peer review and scientific editing.

For publication of a paper in our Journal it should be arranged in accordance with the Editorial Board requirements.

The Journal Editorial Board address: 141202, Russia, Moscow region, Pushkino, Institutskaya str. 15.

The EB phones: 8(495)993-30-54; 8(499)173-46-06.